EVALUATION OF CONTENT

1. The population of the Wojewodschafft Silesia-Dambrowa (Upper Silesia) has been terrorized for some time by two gangs, the "Bajan" and the "Poldka". The security police, with the help of military reinforcements, were able to liquidate the "Bajan" gang. Seven of its members were killed and its automatic weapons were captured. Twenty-four members of the "Poldka" gang, including their leader, were captured after some shooting.
2. In the village of Demblin, district of Lubartow, a member of the communist party PPR (Polska Partja Robotnicza) was killed by the "Szatan" gang which was equipped with automatic weapons. In the settlement of Zagros near Lubartow, a member of the same gang shot a member of the PPR.
3. The terror group "Major Ogien", operating in the slopes of the Carpathians, as well as the organizations "Skala", "Jos", and "Gwiazd" which are working under it, have suffered great losses during the last few weeks. During various encounters, five terrorists were killed and twenty-one members of the gang and nine of its liaison men were captured. The group "Platon Smierci" was broken up. Its aim had been the annihilation of political opponents and officials of the police and security service. It was learned from a captured order that this group had its own espionage network. The order stated among other things: "For the purpose of keeping our people and allies informed about the internal situation of Poland, I hereby decree that an information service should be set up along the following lines: Location of Polish military detachments, organization of units, troop transports by rail, movements of larger units along the roads, provisioning with arms and equipment, production situation, distribution of goods and similar objectives." The chief of the group gave out a leaflet in which he asked the people to fight the enemies and to help liquidate communist officials. The leaflet closes with the words: "We and the Polish Peoples Party to which every decent Pole must belong, will reward all those who work hand in hand with us."
4. During a cleaning up campaign, instituted by the Polish Security Police in the Wojewodschafft Allenstein (Olsztyn -- East Prussia), 16 members of the diversion group "Jastrzebia" were liquidated in the districts of Praszcz and Szczytno. At the same time, the head of the agricultural school in Najdymow, district of Reszel, Valentin Deptula, was arrested by the security police. The interrogation disclosed that the arrested, a party secretary of the PSL, was a member of the subversive organization "WIN", and that the "Jastrebia" gang was directly responsible to him.
